10.3 Subject to Clause 10.2 and except to the extent expressly provided otherwise in the Contract, neither party shall have any liability, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), for breach of statutory duty, misrepresentation (whether innocent or negligent) or otherwise, arising under or in connection with the Contract, for:

- (a) loss of revenue or profits;
- (b) loss of anticipated savings;
- (c) loss of goodwill or injury to reputation;
- (d) loss of business opportunity; or
- (e) any special, indirect or consequential losses of any kind whatsoever and however caused, in each case regardless of whether the party knew or had reason to know of the possibility of the loss or damage in question.

10.4 Subject to Clause 10.2, the total liability of each party under or in connection with the Contract for all loss of or damage to any tangible property of the other party resulting from negligence shall be three million pounds sterling (£3,000,000) in respect of all such claims in aggregate.

10.5 Subject to Clause 10.2 and other than in respect of the liability limited pursuant to Clause 10.4, KCS' total liability, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), for breach of statutory duty, misrepresentation (whether innocent or negligent) or otherwise, arising from or in connection with the supply, provision, acquisition or receipt of a Product or Service under the Contract shall not exceed an amount equivalent to the Charges paid for the Product or Service that is the subject of the claim in the prior twelve (12) months, provided at all times that KCS' total liability for all claims in aggregate, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), for breach of statutory duty, misrepresentation (whether innocent or negligent) or otherwise arising under or in connection with the Contract, will not exceed one million pounds sterling (£1,000,000).

10.6 Subject to Clause 10.2 and without prejudice to its other rights and remedies under the Contract, KCS shall not have any liability, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), for breach of statutory duty, misrepresentation (whether innocent or negligent) or otherwise, arising under or in connection with the Contract, for:

- (a) any breach of the Customer's obligations or any restrictions placed on the Customer under the Contract (including under the Licence Terms);
- (b) the Customer's use of a Release or Version of any of the Software which is no longer supported by KCS;

- (g) any delay in delivery beyond any estimated dates, including performance of its obligations under Clause 2.2; and/or
- (h) any delay in performing or failure to perform its obligations under this Contract as a result of compliance with Clause 2.3.

10.7 Nothing in the Contract shall limit the Customer's obligation to pay the Charges due and payable to KCS under the Contract.

10.8 Except as expressly provided otherwise in the Contract, all conditions, warranties and terms whether express or implied by statute, common law or otherwise are hereby expressly excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law, including without limitation any implied term that any Product and/or Service is or will be of any particular quality or provided to any particular standard (satisfactory or otherwise), fit for any particular purpose (whether made known to KCS or not), conform to any particular description or that the use or operation of the Software will be uninterrupted or error-free.

10.9 Nothing in this Clause 10 will affect either party's right to terminate the Contract in accordance with its terms or any entitlement of either party to injunctive relief.

11. Term and Termination

11.1 The Contract shall come into force on the Contract Date and shall continue in force until the last to expire of each relevant "term" for the Products and Services as set out in the Quotation (as may be amended or extended in writing by the parties), or if none for the term set out in the Additional Applicable Terms or if none, until the completion of the supply or provision of the applicable Product or Service pursuant to the Contract (with the exception of perpetual licences) ("Term").

11.2 Either party may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by notice in writing to the other party if:

- (a) the other party commits a material breach of the Contract, which is either incapable of remedy (other than as to time of performance) or, if capable of remedy, the party in default fails to remedy the breach within thirty (30) days of receiving notice to do so from the other party; or

SECTION A - TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- (b) the other party becomes insolvent, enters into liquidation, whether voluntary or compulsory, passes a resolution for its winding up, has a receiver or administrator appointed over the whole or any part of its assets, makes any composition or arrangement with its creditors, takes or suffers any similar action in consequence of debt, ceases or threatens to cease to carry on business or (being an individual) is the subject of a bankruptcy petition or order.

11.3 KCS may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by notice in writing to the Customer if:

- (a) the Customer commits a breach of any of the Licence Terms, which is either incapable of remedy or, if capable of remedy, the Customer fails to remedy the breach within thirty (30) days of receiving notice to do so from KCS;
- (b) the Customer is in persistent breach of the Contract (and for the purpose of this Clause, a persistent breach means either: (i) a series of two or more defaults by the Customer which are incapable of remedy and which taken together amount to a material breach; or (ii) a series of two or more defaults by the Customer which are capable of remedy but which are not remedied within thirty (30) days of written notice from KCS specifying the defaults and requiring the same to be remedied); or
- (c) the Customer fails to pay any amount due and payable under the Contract on the due date for payment and remains in default not less than thirty (30) days after being notified in writing to make such payment.

11.4 Where KCS has a right to terminate the Contract for cause, it may instead at its option, terminate only the provision of the Product(s) and/or Service(s) in relation to which the breach has occurred and the provisions of Clause 12 shall apply in respect of the relevant Product(s) and/or Service(s). Except where otherwise expressly provided in the Contract, and without prejudice to any right of either party to terminate the Contract in its entirety, termination of a Product(s) and/or Service(s) (as the case may be) in accordance with this Clause or in accordance with the terms of any Additional Applicable Terms shall not affect the remainder of the Contract (nor the other licences, Products and/or Services provided under it), which shall continue in full force and effect.

11.5 Without limiting its other rights or remedies, KCS may suspend the provision of the Products and/or Services under the Contract if the Customer becomes subject to any of the events listed in Clause 11.2(b), or KCS reasonably believes that the Customer is about to become subject to any of them.

11.6 The Customer acknowledges that KCS may take such steps as are reasonably required (which may include accessing the Customer Systems in order to amend the licence file) to enable KCS to exercise its rights and remedies under the Contract, including the termination or suspension of any Products and/or Services.

12. Consequences of Termination

12.1 Subject to Clause 12.2 and Clause 12.3, on expiry or termination of the Contract for any reason:

- (a) the Customer shall immediately pay to KCS any Charges and other sums due and payable to KCS under the Contract;
- (b) the Customer shall return all of KCS' equipment and materials, failing which KCS may enter the relevant premises and take possession of them (and until such time, the Customer shall be solely responsible for their safe-keeping);
- (c) the Customer shall cease all use of the Software, the Deliverables and the Materials and KCS shall be entitled to, and is authorised by the Customer to, take all steps necessary to effect the cessation of use of the Software;

- (d) all licences granted under or in connection with this Contract shall immediately terminate;

- (e) except as otherwise expressly provided in the Contract, KCS shall immediately cease provision of the Services;

- (f) the Customer shall (at KCS' election) return to KCS or permanently destroy (or make unusable if destruction is not possible) all copies of the Software (including all back up copies), the Deliverables, the Materials and any equipment, property or other items belonging to KCS (including the deletion of the same from the Customer Systems and associated storage means). The Customer shall certify its compliance with this Clause 12.1(f) to KCS by way of written communication signed by a director of the Customer;

- (g) the Customer shall return to KCS, or at KCS' election destroy, all copies of documents and materials containing, reflecting, incorporating or based on KCS' Confidential Information. The Customer shall certify its compliance with this Clause 12.1(g) to KCS by way of written communication signed by a director of the Customer; and

- (h) KCS shall, at the Customer's request, return to the Customer (or at KCS' election destroy) all copies of documents and materials containing, reflecting, incorporating or based on the Customer's Confidential Information and the Customer shall reimburse KCS for all costs of returning or destroying such documents and materials on the basis of the KCS Rates.

12.2 If a party is required by any law, regulation, or government or regulatory body to retain any data, documents or materials (including Customer Data) which it would otherwise be obliged to return or destroy under this Contract, it shall notify the other party in writing of such retention, giving details of the documents or materials that it must retain.

12.3 Where the term of the licences granted pursuant to Clause 2 of Section B (Software) or pursuant to Clause 2 of the Third Party Terms for any ASFU Oracle Software is perpetual, such licences shall survive expiry or termination of the Contract (subject to the applicable Licence Terms and Clause 11.3(a)) unless KCS terminates the Contract or such licence(s) and the provision of any affected Products and/or Services for cause, in which case all rights granted to the Customer in accordance with such licences shall immediately cease and the provisions of Clause 12.1 shall apply.

12.4 Expiry or termination of the Contract for any reason shall be without prejudice to the accrued rights and remedies of each party existing at expiry or termination, including any claim either party may have against the other for breach or non-performance of the Contract and shall not affect any provision of the Contract which is expressly or by implication intended to come into effect on, or to continue in effect after such expiry or termination, including Clause 5 (Confidentiality), Clause 7 (Intellectual Property Rights), Clause 9 (Indemnities), Clause 10 (Limits of Liability), Clause 12 (Consequences of Termination), Clause 15 (Audit), Clause 17 (Force Majeure), Clause 18 (Third Party Rights), Clause 19 (Miscellaneous Provisions), Clause 2 of Section B (Software) (where the licence survives expiry or termination of the Contract), Clauses 5, 6, 7 and 9 of Section B (Software) and the Third Party Terms for the ASFU Oracle Software (where the licence survives expiry or termination of the Contract).

12.5 Termination or expiry of this Contract shall not affect any of either party's rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities available under the Contract that have accrued up to the date of termination or expiry, including the right to claim damages in respect of any breach of this Contract which existed at or before the date of termination or expiry.

- 13.2 KCS may:
- (a) make changes to the Services and/or Products; or

- 13.3 Notwithstanding any other provision, KCS may from time to time and without notice, change the Products and/or Services in order to comply with any applicable health, safety, security or other statutory or legal requirements. KCS shall inform the Customer as soon as reasonably practicable after any such changes have been made.
- 13.4 If KCS considers that a requested product and/or service does not qualify as part of any Product and/or Service, the request will be discussed with the Customer and KCS may supply a quote for the cost of the excluded work. If KCS agrees to undertake the service, KCS shall be entitled to charge and the Customer shall pay for the work done on the basis of the KCS Rates or, where applicable, as specified in a quotation.
- 13.5 Save as expressly provided otherwise in this Contract, if either party wishes to change the scope or execution of the Products and/or Services, it shall submit details of the requested change to the other party in writing ("Change Request").

- 13.7 If the Customer originates a Change Request, KCS shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving the Change Request, provide a written estimate to the Customer setting out the likely time required to implement the proposed change and details of the impact which the proposed change will have on: the Products and/or Services, the existing Charges, any relevant timetable and any Contract Terms.
- 13.8 Save as expressly provided otherwise in this Contract, unless both parties consent to a Change Request, there shall be no change to the Products and/or Services or any other terms of this Contract.
- 13.9 If either party is unwilling to accept a Change Request suggested by the other, then the other party may require the disagreement to be dealt with in accordance with the Dispute Resolution Procedure.
- 13.10 KCS may charge for the time it spends on dealing with Change Requests originating from the Customer on the basis of the KCS Rates in accordance with Clause 4.

14. Governance and Personnel

- 14.1 The Customer will nominate Customer Representatives (being up to five named individuals or as otherwise agreed in writing with KCS) and a Senior Customer Representative and will notify KCS, in writing, of the identity and contact details of the Customer Representatives and Senior Customer Representative and of any replacements from time to time.
- 14.2 The Senior Customer Representative will:
- (a) ensure that the contacts for KCS are nominated;
 - (b) be an escalation point for members of the Customer's personnel for issues relating to the Products and/or Services;
 - (c) be the escalation point for KCS; and
 - (d) take strategic decisions regarding the use of the Products and/or Services.
- 14.3 The parties will hold periodic review meetings at a frequency to be agreed between the parties to monitor and review the performance of the Contract, to discuss any issues relating to the Services and jointly agree any necessary actions to be taken thereafter. Such meetings will be attended by the Senior Customer Representative and a senior representative from KCS.
- 14.4 KCS will maintain relevant contact and information pertaining to the Customer. In the event that Customer employees are no longer responsible or authorised to be contacted by KCS, it will be the responsibility of the Customer to notify KCS.
- 14.5 If the parties have agreed that a named person shall provide any or all of the Services, KCS may replace such person with one or more other persons with equivalent qualifications and experience.

15. Audit

- 15.1 The Customer shall, during the Term and for a period of twelve (12) months following its expiry or termination for any reason, permit KCS to inspect and have remote or physical access to the Customer Systems and access to any Customer Premises on or at which the Software is being or has been kept or used and/or the Services are or have been supplied or received, and have access to any records kept in connection with the Contract, for the purposes of ensuring that the Customer is complying or has complied with the terms of this Contract, provided that KCS provides reasonable advance notice to the Customer of such inspections, which shall take place at reasonable times, save where KCS reasonably believes that there has been unauthorised use of the Software and/or the Services in which case KCS may conduct such an inspection remotely immediately upon giving notice to the Customer. Where such an audit finds that the Customer is in breach of any of the Contract Terms, the Customer shall pay the costs of the audit.
- 15.2 Without prejudice to KCS' other rights and remedies, the Customer shall pay for broadening the scope of the licences or other rights granted under this Contract (or any other contract between the parties) to cover any unauthorised use of the Products and/or Services, being an amount equal to the Charges which KCS would have levied (in accordance with its normal commercial terms then current) had it licensed any such unauthorised use on the date when such use commenced together with interest at the rate provided for in Clause 4.11, from such date to the date of payment.

SECTION A - TERMS AND CONDITIONS

16. Relief

16.1 If KCS' performance of any of its obligations under the Contract is prevented or delayed by any act or omission of the Customer or its officers, employees, agents, consultants or third party contractors or by Customer failure to perform or any delay in performing any of its relevant obligations ("Customer Failure"):

- (a) KCS shall, without prejudice its other rights and remedies: (i) have the right to suspend supply of the relevant Products and/or Services until the Customer remedies the Customer Failure; (ii) have the right to rely on the Customer Failure to relieve it from the performance of any of its obligations to the extent the Customer Failure prevents or delays KCS' performance of any of its obligations; and (iii) be given a corresponding extension of any timetable for performance of its obligations;
- (b) KCS shall not be liable for any costs or losses sustained or incurred by the Customer arising directly or indirectly from such prevention or delay; and
- (c) notwithstanding Clause 10.3, the Customer shall reimburse KCS on written demand for any costs or losses (including loss of opportunity to deploy resources elsewhere) sustained or incurred by KCS arising directly or indirectly from the Customer Failure.

16.2 The parties acknowledge that the planned time of completion of the Services is dependent on the Customer:

- (a) fulfilling its obligations under the Contract in a timely manner; and
- (b) co-operating with KCS and providing such assistance as is reasonably required by KCS.

17. Force Majeure

17.1 Neither party shall be responsible for a failure to fulfil its obligations under the Contract to the extent that any such failure results from a Force Majeure Event. Neither party shall have any liability as a result of any such non-performance, delay or termination as a result of a Force Majeure Event and the time for performance of such obligations shall be extended accordingly. If such Force Majeure Event continues for more than three (3) months, either party may terminate the provision of the affected Product(s) and/or Service(s) forthwith by notice to the other.

18. Third Party Rights

18.1 Save as provided in Clauses 18.2 and 18.3, no person will have the right to enforce or require the enforcement of any provision of the Contract as a third party beneficiary including pursuant to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999. The rights of the parties to terminate, rescind or agree any variation, waiver or settlement under the Contract are not subject to the consent of any person that is not a party to the Contract.

18.2 All references to KCS in Clause 10 shall, for the purposes of Clause 10 only, be treated as including all Affiliates of KCS and all employees, sub-contractors and suppliers of KCS and its Affiliates, all of whom shall have the benefit of the exclusions and limitations of liability set out in Clause 10. It is agreed that it is intended to confer a benefit on KCS and its Affiliates and their employees, sub-contractors and suppliers, by extending to them the benefit of the exclusions and limitations of liability set out in Clause 10, provided that the rights of such persons under the Contract shall only be enforceable by KCS on their behalf (but KCS shall owe no duty to them to enforce such rights and it may conduct or compromise any relevant proceedings as it sees fit).

18.3 The Customer agrees that, without prejudice to any rights of KCS:

- (a) Keyloop has the right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to bring a claim directly against the Customer for any breach of any of the Licence Terms in respect of the KCS Core Software; and
- (b) Oracle has the right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to bring a claim directly against the Customer.

19. Miscellaneous Provisions

19.1 All notices given to the other party under or in connection with this Contract shall be in writing and shall be either: (a) delivered by hand; or (b) sent by first class post or other next working day delivery service providing proof of postage or delivery, to the address set out in the Quotation or to such other address as a party may designate by notice to the other party from time to time. Any such notice will be deemed to have been served, if by hand, when delivered on signature of a delivery receipt; or if by first class post or other next working day delivery service, by 9.00 am on the second Business Day after posting or at the time recorded by the delivery service.

19.2 No variation of this Contract shall be binding on the parties unless agreed in writing by an authorised representative of each party.

19.3 The Contract constitutes the entire agreement and understanding between the parties in respect of the subject matter of the Contract and supersedes all prior contracts, arrangements, representations, quotations and understandings in respect of the same subject matter, whether oral or written, between the parties.

19.4 Each of the parties acknowledges and agrees that in entering into the Contract it does not rely on, and will have no remedy in respect of, any statement, representation, warranty or assurance (whether negligently or innocently made) of any person (whether party to the Contract or not) other than as expressly set out in the Contract. Each party waives all rights and remedies against the other in respect of any such statement, warranty or representation or assurance except in respect of any statement, warranty, representation or assurance expressly made in the Contract.

19.5 If any provision or part-provision of the Contract is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid, legal and enforceable. If such modification is not possible, the relevant provision or part-provision shall be deemed deleted. Any modification to or deletion of a provision or part-provision under this Clause shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of the Contract.

19.6 A waiver of any right or remedy under this Contract or by law is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. No failure or delay by a party to exercise any of its rights or remedies under the Contract or at law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

19.7 The Customer may not assign, transfer, charge, subcontract, or deal in any other manner with the Contract (in whole or in part) or any or all of its rights and/or obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of KCS. KCS may freely subcontract, assign, transfer, charge or deal in any other manner with any or all of its rights and/or obligations under the Contract, provided in the case of assignment that it gives written notice of the same to the Customer. For the avoidance of doubt, KCS shall remain liable for any acts or omissions of its subcontractors.

19.8.6. Upon creation, KCS owns and retains all Intellectual Property Rights in the KCS Service Analysis and may copy, modify and use such KCS Service Analysis for any lawful business purpose.

19.9 Each party agrees that during the Term and for one (1) year following the expiry or termination of the Contract, it will not directly or indirectly solicit (or seek to attempt to solicit or permit any Affiliate to solicit), the employment of any person who is employed by the other party in the course of the provision or receipt of the Products and/or Services or any of them. This does not prohibit either party from considering any application for employment submitted on an unsolicited basis or in response to a general advertisement of employment opportunities.

19.10 Each party will do and execute, or arrange for the doing and executing of, each necessary act, document and thing reasonably within its power to implement and give effect to the Contract Terms, at its own cost.

19.14 If the Dispute is not resolved by the parties in accordance with Clause 19.13 for any reason, either party may refer the Dispute to mediation in accordance with the Centre for Dispute Resolution (CEDR) Model Mediation Procedure. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the mediator will be nominated by CEDR Solve. To initiate the mediation, a party must serve notice in writing ("ADR notice") to the other party, requesting a mediation. A copy of the ADR notice should be sent to CEDR Solve. The mediation will start not later than thirty (30) days after the date of the ADR notice.

19.15 The commencement of mediation shall not prevent the parties commencing or continuing court proceedings in relation to the Dispute under Clause 19.18, which Clause shall apply at all times.

19.16 If the Dispute is not resolved within sixty (60) days after service of the ADR notice, or either party fails to participate or to continue to participate in the mediation before the expiration of such period, or the mediation terminates before the expiration of such period, the Dispute shall be finally resolved by the Courts of England in accordance with Clause 19.18.

19.17 The Contract and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England.

19.18 Each party irrevocably agrees that the Courts of England shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with this Contract or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims).
